

AWFUL TRAIN WRECK ON OLD "SHEEPSKIN" OCCURRED LAST NIGHT

EIGHT KILLED, SIX INJURED

Passenger Trains in Collision Near Dresden, Ohio.

ONE BREAKS DOWN ON CURVE

Cincinnati & Muskingum Valley Express Crashes Into the Rear of Stalled Cleveland, Akron & Columbus Local Train—Brakeman Who Started to Flag the Former Unable to Prevent the Collision.

Zanesville, O., Dec. 4.—A disastrous wreck occurred on the Cincinnati & Muskingum Valley branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, two miles from Dresden, when C. & M. V. passenger train No. 43, from Trinway to Zanesville, crashed into the rear of the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus local train from Millersburg to Zanesville, killing eight people, fatally injuring three others and seriously injuring three.

The dead: Mrs. B. A. Emerson, 32, of Zanesville, and her two children; Henry Babian of Cleveland; Henry Bartles, 30, Albion, Mich.; Max Harris, 30, Lodi; L. H. Blaney, 24, Zanesville; unidentified man.

Fatally hurt: Jacob Burgoyne, 57, Zanesville, father of Mrs. Emerson; William Rudrick, 40, of Zanesville; James Bryant, 45, of Lancaster.

Less severely hurt: Frank Saup, 30, Lancaster, express messenger, cut and bruised; Guy Altrock, 30, Bremen, both hands scalded; George Einsel, 35, Killbuck, railway mail clerk, face cut.

Soon after leaving Dresden the engine of the C. & A. & C. train broke down on the curve at Rock Cut, and the train came to a standstill on the main track. A brakeman started back to flag the C. & M. V. train, but before he had gone 50 yards the other train appeared and the collision occurred.

The dead and injured were brought to this city.

The engine plowed through the rear coach and demolished it. The dead and injured were all in this coach, but several escaped by jumping. The eight who were fatally hurt were scalded by escaping steam.

The accident to the C. & A. & C. engine was caused by a plug blowing out.

Those Militant Britishers Have Again Begun a Fight

London Suffragets Again Attack the Street Mail Boxes.

London, Dec. 4.—Despite the vigilance of the police, the suffragets are again pouring fluid into the street mail boxes. They poured paint into a wall box in the Threadneedle street postoffice. This office is almost next door to the Bank of England. Considerable damage was done to the letters and documents in the box. A sticky fluid was poured into a mail box on Downing street, Piccadilly. The vandalism was carefully timed to catch the bulk of the letters from clubland. In addition to pouring the nasty fluid into the box, the culprit also sprung the keyhole, and the services of a locksmith were necessary before the box could be opened.

Gold Discovered in Spain.

Madrid, Dec. 4.—An alluvial gold field has been discovered in the province of Leon, in the northwest of Spain, and prospecting is being conducted by a syndicate in which Eugene De Saba and Ernest Wilthee represent American interests. The syndicate is buying up land in the vicinity of the discovery.

PROUD OF HIS PARDON RECORD

Governor Shaffroth Explains the Colorado System of Working Convicts on the Highways Without Guards, Putting Each Man Upon His Honor. Other Matters Before the House of Governors.

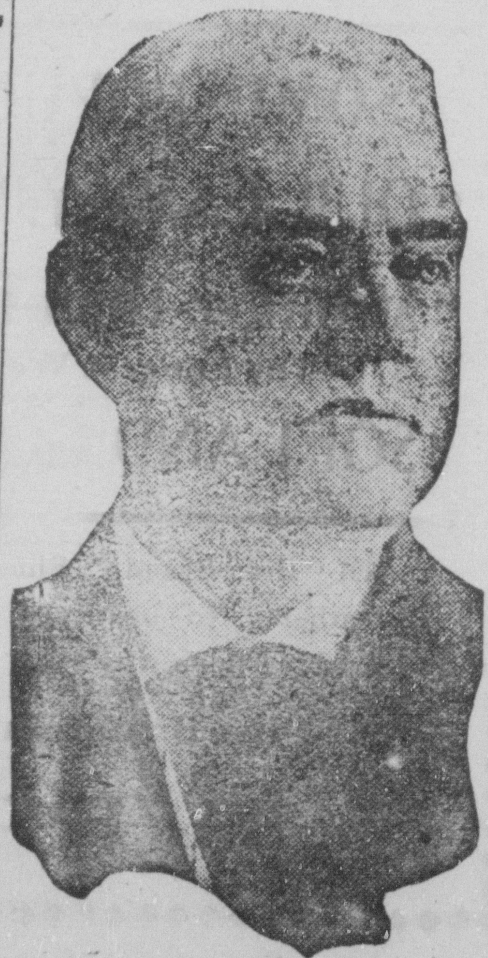

Richmond, Va., Dec. 4.—The declaration of Governor Cole S. Blease of South Carolina on the floor of the fifth annual session of the House of Governors that he would never call out the militia of his state to protect a negro rapist, and thus subject neighbor to shoot down neighbor, and his further declaration that he was proud of his pardon record, hoping that the number of pardons would reach 800 before his retirement, furnished the first sensation of the conference.

Governor John F. Shaffroth of Colorado, speaking on the subject of modern penology, said the criminals of the states were in two divisions, those whose crimes demanded severe punishment, or else anarchy would reign; and those whose crimes subjected them to the pardoning power and commutation of sentence. The punishment in either class was not ideal, and a punishment between the two classes was a necessity. The speaker said Colorado has a policy which places punishment on a humane basis. The prisoners there earn their own liberty; prisoners sentenced for more than 10 years being paroled at the tenth year. If their conduct is good, the sentences are reduced each PRESIDENT ELECT WILSON'S arrival at Bermuda on the steamer Bermudian for his month's "rest cure" after the strenuous campaign was made the occasion of a holiday. He was royally received and went at once to the quaint old coral cottage called "Glencove," on the little peninsula at Paget, across the bay from Hamilton. This is the home of Mrs. Peck, friend of the Wilsons, who loaned it to the president elect and his family for their vacation. The governor started at once to have the "laziest" play time of his life in preparation for his busy time to come.

Evelyn Thaw In Court

New York, Dec. 4.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was a witness in the city court and she drew many persons to Judge Lynch's courtroom. She was defendant in an action brought by Gorham & Company to recover $2,041 for silverware delivered to her in 1905. She said, and she was very amiable in saying it, that the silverware had been ordered by her husband, Harry K. Thaw. He's in Matteawan. She added he pays the bills.

Harrison Gets New Trial.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 4.—The United States circuit court of appeals here granted a new trial to William P. Harrison, wealthy manufacturer of this city, who was convicted in the United States district court for misuse of the mails in connection with the sale of vacuum cleaners and "easy way" washers. Harrison was sentenced in the lower court to serve three years in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and to pay a fine of $1,000 and costs.

Cetone Case Near an End

Defense in Alleged Bribery Trial Springs a Surprise.

Columbus, O., Dec. 4.—Arguments are being heard today in the case of Senator G. K. Cetone, who is on trial on charge of bribery. It is expected the case will go to the jury this afternoon.

The defense sprung a surprise by suddenly resting its case without calling the alibi witnesses. It will allow its defense to go to the jury on the sole presumption that, even if Senator Cetone accepted money from Burns detectives, it could not have been in the nature of the bribe, since he himself was the author of the Cetone-Whittemore bill, and therefore would not have to be influenced to vote for it.

ACCUSED MAN RECITES STORY TO THE POLICE

SOLON MAY DON HIS WAR PAINT

SAYS HE CHOKED WIFE TO DEATH

Harvey Shanover Makes Com- plete Confession.

HAD INTENDED TO KILL SELF

Breaks Down When Coroner Who Held Inquest Over Remains of His Spouse Rendered Verdict of Death by Strangulation—Prisoner Reported to Have Been Extremely Jealous of His Wife.

Akron, O., Dec. 4.—Before Prosecuting Attorney Frank J. Rockwell, Sheriff Ferguson and Chief of Police H. E. Eby of Barberton, Harvey Shanover broke down and confessed that he had choked to death his 23-year-old wife, Edna Hartgrove Shanover. Frequent quarrels with his wife, he said, had destroyed his happiness, and he killed her, intending also to take his own life.

When her body was found in their home at Barberton by her father and police, a search for Shanover was started. He was found at the home of his mother, Mrs. Melissa Shanover, in Massillon, and declared his innocence. He said that he had left his wife lying on the bed at their home and had gone to the depot. His train was late and he went back to talk to his wife, he said, later taking the train for his mother's home.

Strangled His Wife.

In his confession he said that before his first trip to the depot he had choked his wife to death. When he missed his train he came back to their home and rearranged everything in the room where his wife lay and then went back to the depot.

When Coroner R. C. Kenning, at Barberton, gave his verdict of death by strangulation and ordered that Shanover be held for murder, he was arrested by Chief of Police Emertle, at Massillon, and held for Chief Eby.

In Shanover's pocket was found a letter to his brother Clarence directing him to straighten up his business and household affairs and asking forgiveness "for all the trouble I have and am about to cause."

When arrested he declared his intention of killing himself, but no weapons were found on him, although a close watch will be kept on him at the county jail, where he is held for the grand jury without bail for murder in the first degree.

According to Thomas Hardgrove, Mrs. Shanover's brother, Shanover was extremely jealous of his wife, and this was the cause of their many quarrels.

Shanover is a machinist in Barberton and his wife was the daughter of a prominent Barberton family.

Federal Judge Is Denounced In the Senate Of the Nation

Washington, Dec. 4.—Commerce Court Judge Archbald, on trial before the senate for alleged judicial misdeemeanors, heard bitter denunciation of his character and work on the bench when Chairman Clayton of the house "prosecutors" summed up the evidence on which ousting of Archbald is urged.

President Taft Names a Number of Ohio Postmasters.

Washington, Dec. 4.—President Taft sent a long list of nominations to the senate, among which were a number of Ohio postmaster appointments which have been the cause of a prolonged squabble between Senator Burton and State Chairman Harry M. Daugherty.

Most important of the lot was the Dayton appointment, which is given to Charles W. Bieser. Burton is bitterly opposed to Bieser, and it is probable that he will not permit the confirmation of the appointment if he can prevent it.

The other Ohioans named were: W. C. Newell, Bainbridge; George C. Braden, Warren; George W. C. Perry, Chillicothe; Melson Argo, Cleves; J. Winn Fuller, Wickliffe, and Mrs. Kate V. Drinkle, Lancaster. It is stated Burton will acquiesce in all these.

Mrs. Drinkle, the Lancaster appointee, is a sister of National Committee-man Arthur I. Vorys.

Later the nomination of Perry as postmaster at Chillicothe was withdrawn, an alleged concession to Burton.

Jealousies May Rend Asunder The Balkan Pact

Turkey and Other Balkan States Sign 14-Day Armistice.

Constantinople, Dec. 4.—It was officially announced here that an armistice to last for 14 days had just been signed at Baghchetsch by the representatives of the Turks on one side and Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro on the other. Greece, the stumbling block all through the negotiations, refused to sign the armistice. She has been told by the other allies that she may continue the war alone if she so desires.

The fate of Adrianople, the crux of the peace negotiations, is not yet known. A dispatch from Mustapha Pasha says that the Bulgarian commander-in-chief sent two officers with a white flag to the beleaguered city to demand its surrender. He promised that the lives and property of every one in the town would be safe and that the capitulation would be made on honorable terms.

Tot Terribly Scalded.

Newark, O., Dec. 4.—Marguerite, the little 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Walton of Utica, fell into a tub of scalding water and her entire left side was literally cooked. The physician who was called said the child's death was but a matter of a couple of hours.

Harry Thomas Operated On.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 4.—Harry D. Thomas, secretary of the Ohio Federation of Labor and a member of the recent constitutional convention, was operated upon here following a nervous breakdown. His condition is serious, but physicians say he will recover.

FORMER WELL KNOWN RESIDENT ENDS LIFE

Bruce M. Priddy Drinks Cyanide at Home in Kansas City and End Comes Quickly---Left Note to Mother---Father Was Former Probate Judge Here and Deceased Has Many Relatives in Fayette County.

Bruce M. Priddy, son of former Fayette county probate judge, J. B. Priddy, ended his life in Kansas City, Mo., Monday night by drinking cyanide of potash. Word of his death was received in this city Tuesday. He has many relatives and friends in this city and county, and the Priddy family left here some 24 years ago.

A clipping from one of the Kansas City papers, forwarded by Mr. W. A. Morris, also a former resident, contains the following report of the suicide:

"Bruce M. Priddy, 45 years old, secretary of the Real Estate Board of Kansas City, committed suicide by drinking cyanide at his home, 3521 Forest avenue, shortly after ten o'clock last night. He left a note to his mother, Lora Rockwell Priddy with whom he lived. It read:

"Goodby, dear mother. You will find deeds to properties and statement of affairs in the box in office vault. This is cyanide. BRUCE."

Mrs. Priddy said that he had remained at home all day and appeared to be in good spirits. He told his mother about 10 o'clock that he was going to take a bath before retiring and requested her to turn on the water in the bathtub.

After taking a bath he entered his bedroom. About 11:30 o'clock Mrs. Priddy was aroused by the sounds of heavy breathing. She went to her son's room and failing to receive a response to her calls turned on the electric light which was hanging over the bed.

Noticing the unnatural position in which he was lying, she shook him, but could not arouse him. On the dresser was a tumbler, and in the bottom she noticed a white powder that had been moistened. At first she thought it was medicine. A moment later she read the note which had been placed alongside the glass.

Dr. T. W. Overall was summoned, but Mr. Priddy died at 12 o'clock, a few minutes before the physician arrived. He did not regain consciousness. Doctor Overall notified Dr. Harry Czarilinsky, the coroner.

Mrs. Priddy said she could assign no reason for her son's act. It is probable, she said, that he might have met with financial reverses, but he never intimated to her that he was in any way involved.

Bruce M. Priddy was well known in real estate circles in Kansas City. He was born in Washington C. H. O., removing later to Wichita with his parents. He was a member of the City club and a thirty-second degree Mason. The body will be interred in Wichita where his father lies buried. He was unmarried.

Long Record Broken at Last

Since the old "Sheepskin" railroad now the Zanesville Division of the Pennsylvania railroad, was built to this city in 1854, no passengers were ever killed on the road until Tuesday evening, when eleven met death east of Zanesville. However the passengers were then carried by trains from the Akron division.

The remarkable record is probably without parallel in history, and while numerous employes and trespassers have been killed along the line from Cincinnati to Trinway, no regular passenger ever met death.

An interesting incident is recalled in connection with the advent of the first Cincinnati papers ever brought in over a railroad to this city. Col. B. H. Millikan met the train just west of town and brought the papers in to what was then Washington village.

JEFFERSON TOWNSHIP YOUTH WINS HONORS

Carl E. Miller Grows 104.82 Bushels of Corn Upon One Acre and Wins Trip to Washington, D. C.--Four Jefferson Township Lads and One From Green Township Finish in the Contest.

Carl E. Miller, the 18-year old son of James L. Miller, of Jefferson township, holds the county championship in the Boys' Corn Growing Contest in which the successful winner secures a free trip to Washington, D. C., leaving Columbus on the 16th of this month.

The champion raised 104.82 bushels upon one measured acre of ground, and the corn was husked and carefully weighed by judges appointed by the county commissioners, so that there could be no doubt about the result being correct. This method was followed in all cases throughout Ohio.

Following closely upon the heels of young Miller, came another Jefferson township youth, Donal Zimmerman, son of Elba Zimmerman, who grew 101.58 bushels to the acre.

Following Zimmerman came Marvin Williams, son of Burt E. Williams, also of Jefferson township, and Mr. Williams, Jr., has 91.95 bushels to his credit on the sample acre.

Harry L. Heironymous, still another hustling Jefferson township youth was a close fourth with 90.08 bushels on the one acre of ground.

Ralph T. Roush, son of Samuel Roush of Green township, was fifth with 69.69 bushels. However, it must be said for young Roush that he probably has raised more corn to the acre than any other Fayette youth, for last year a single acre cultivated by the young man produced 127 bushels.

Sixteen boys started in the contest, but owing to the lateness of the start, and the fact that some were compelled to plant their corn the second time, most of them dropped out.

Already the boys are preparing for a battle royal next year, and if the season is a good one it is safe to predict that there will be an increase over the amount raised per acre this year, as the ground is to be more highly fertilized and better cared for.

The five banks of this city agreed to pay the expenses of the youth who raised the greatest amount of corn upon a single acre, and in accordance with their plans, Carl Miller will leave on December 16th and a special train from Columbus will carry several score of hustling young Buckeye farmers to Washington, where they will be received by President Taft in the famous east wing of the White House, and will be photographed with the president. They will visit the Senate and Congress in session, and will make the rounds of the historic points of interest before returning.

The special train will be under the personal charge of Secretary of Agriculture A. P. Scales. The excursion was postponed from the original date, which was earlier in the month.

The average yield of corn in Fayette county is about 36 bushels per acre.

Falls Down Elevator Shaft

Mr. George Anchutz received last evening a telegram saying that William Anchutz who left his home here to go to Dayton some time ago, had been seriously injured in a fall down an elevator shaft. One ankle was broken and there are other injuries, with the possibility that both ankles are broken.

Further particulars are anxiously awaited.

GYPSY LOVE AT THE HARTMAN.

One of the most noteworthy musical events of the entire season will be the engagement at the Hartman theater, Columbus, of Franz Lehar's newest light opera "Gypsy Love", under the direction of A. H. Woods. Unlimited praise has been accorded this opera from the night of its production and the company is one of the finest ever gathered together. Phyllis Partington who sings the part of Zorika and Arthur Albro, who has the leading male role are both singers who have been placed in the rank of "Grand Opera" favorites and the music in "Gypsy Love" gives them wonderful opportunities for the display of their vocal power. The story is of a beautiful girl of noble rank, Zorika, who on the eve of her marriage meets a Gypsy violinist in the woods and is fascinated by his music. She plans an elopement, but in a dream she sees into the future and finds her life far from the beautiful one she imagines it to be. Awakening she comes to the conclusion that the gypsy life is undesirable and dismisses her lover for her fiancé. An unusually beautiful production makes "Gypsy Love" an event not to be missed. The engagement is for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 12, 13, 14, with a Saturday matinee.

CLUB NEWS

Although not as large an attendance as usual the Browning club held an interesting meeting last night, with the department of Household Economics, Mrs. D. H. Rowe, chairman, in charge.

The Browning club expressed itself as heartily in sympathy with the action of the D. A. R. the night before in petitioning Mayor Smith to enforce the anti-spitting ordinance and voted to send a similar petition from their club.

It was interesting news to the Browning club and will be to the public to learn that if as many red cross stamps are sold in Washington as the town has population, that our city will be entitled to the free service of a Red Cross nurse for one month if desired, in a tuberculosis case.

The Browning women are taking 5,000 stamps to sell and with a little outside help the number can easily be attained and a splendid cause sustained as well as the reward of the nurse's service.

Miss Ella Hess presented an interesting paper on "Holidays in Norway, Denmark and Sweden." In these countries Christmas is sacredly kept from the 16th of December to January 6th, the entire week a time of great rejoicing. In place of American turkey the Danes' Christmas feast is roast goose, stuffed with apples and prunes.

The Red Cross stamp originated in Denmark and $500,000 was raised in that country by their sale last year.

Miss Hess also referred to the Cuban holiday year on January 26th, which is called the day of the Wisemen.

Miss Ruth Allen presented Dr. Wiley of pure food fame and his work in a splendid paper. The famous pure food advocate is musician, poet, after dinner speaker and keeps actively in touch with all the best interests of the world.

In Berlin he studied the adulteration of foods, and was called to Washington as the head of the Department of Chemistry.

DIRECTORS OF HUMANE SOCIETY HOLD MEETING

Splendid Work of the Organization Is Shown By Reports and Greater Work Is Planned--A Meeting of Entire Membership Called for Tuesday Night of Next Week.

The Board of Directors of the Humane Society of Fayette county met at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night and transacted business of importance, and called a meeting of the entire membership for next Tuesday night at seven o'clock, to be held at the Y. M. C. A.

Humane Officer Gooderel was present and his report shows a great amount of commendable work accomplished since the last meeting, and everything connected with the society is moving along very nicely.

Plans were discussed for increasing the working efficiency of the society throughout the county.

In view of the great good accomplished by the representatives of the society, and that it is no longer an experiment, but a live society accomplishing a work that is commendable in every way, committees were appointed to appear before the City Council and County Commissioners for the full allotment made by law for the salary of a humane officer.

At present the officer draws $15 from the county and $10 from the city, per month, while the law allows not less than $25 from the county and not less than $20 from the city.

It is the desire of the society to enlist a large number of the women of the county as members of the society, and also to greatly increase the list of men.

With the approach of cold weather it will be necessary for the owners of horses to blanket them during stormy weather while they are left standing at the hitch racks in the city, and take other precaution looking toward the comfort of their animals.

The surroundings of a number of children have been greatly improved within the past few weeks under the attention of Humane Officer Gooderel, some of the unfortunate youngsters being supplied with better homes and more sanitary surroundings, as well as better moral surroundings.

A BIG PROJECT.

The people of Washington, especially those who are the primary source of all public revenues, the ones who must furnish the money, the all important taxpayers, are, or should be interested in the proposal of the city council and the township trustees to purchase 28 acres of creek bottom, adjoining the present cemetery grounds on the east "for cemetery purposes."

Not with the intention, at this time, of urging any opposition to the proposal, nor with the intention to recommend it, but with a purpose, solely, to direct toward the project that earnest consideration of the public which its importance warrants, the especial attention of Herald readers is called to the proposal and its present status.

The matter of purchasing more ground for cemetery purposes is not a new subject to the people of Washington and Union township. The present cemetery grounds are very generally considered to be inadequate in territorial extent to meet the demands made for space. The cemetery is jointly owned and controlled by Union township and the city of Washington. Whether more land should be purchased has been the subject of discussion for years and that subject carried with it of necessity that other problem—in which direction, north, south, east or west the extension should be carried, because there was purchasable ground in each direction and joining up to the present cemetery. The land which it is now proposed to purchase is, in the opinion of many, the least available for cemetery purposes, of any of the land adjoining the cemetery, while a great many others insist that the extra expense admittedly necessary to place the creek bottom in condition for use as a burying ground, for landscape gardening, for bridges, fills and so on will be compensated for in the beauty of the completed grounds.

The price agreed upon for the land is eight thousand four hundred dollars, and at the next meeting of the city council the project will, in all likelihood, be finally determined, and the purchase made or proposal defeated. Already it has passed on two readings and the third only remains to make of it a legislative finality.

The details of the proposal and the progress of the movement have been published from day to day in The Herald, but the fact that the project involves the expenditure of so large a sum of money that a bond issue will be necessary to raise funds, taken in connection with the fact that heavy expenditures must be made to put the ground in condition to fulfill the object of the purchase and the fact that the erection of a public mausoleum to cost thirty thousand dollars has already been contracted for by the cemetery trustees, although not unanimously, warrants directing the attention of the public particularly to the proposal, its cost and its purpose.

The matter is one of importance, it involves a bond issue and those citizens of Washington who pay taxes and go without many needed improvements owing to the rigidity of the present tax laws should give the matter earnest consideration, make up their minds deliberately and honestly and then attempt by all honorable means to bring about legislative action in harmony with the conclusion reached.

It is a big project and deserves the thought and the action of every good citizen.

Poetry For Today

A HINT.

Perhaps you cannot reach the top,
Perhaps your burdens are too great
And it may be that you must drop
Out of the ranks and lose to fate,
Perhaps you are to know the worst,
To fall while others clamber high,
Never a race to finish first,
But still if I were you I'd try.

Perhaps, just as you say, your task
Is far too difficult for you,
That it's too much for them to ask
One of your frail physique to do,
And it may be that you must fall,
And few will know the reason why;
Then it will do no good to wall,
Why don't you buckle in and try?

If, as you say, the load's too great,
The hill too steep for you to climb,
Why not put up a fight with fate?
Keep plodding, plugging all the time,
Get just as far as you can go,
Be not too quick to pause and sigh;
Perhaps you'll fail, but you can show
That you've the splendid grit to try.

DANGER FROM GRIPPE.

Lies In That Cough and Weak, Worn Out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Crabill of Strasburg, Va., says: "Grippe left me weak, rundown and with a severe cough from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and well again, and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money.

P. S. For Eczema of Scalp try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

Lord Courtney's Wit.

Lord Courtney, who recently celebrated his 78th birthday, has a happy wit. During the time he was a member of the House of Commons he was asked at one of the meetings of his constituents whether he was in favor of a bill to legalize marriage with a deceased wife's sister. "May I inquire," he asked, "whether the questioner is married?" The gentleman replied that he was and that his wife had a sister. "Is your wife present?" asked the future peer. "She is not." "Well," said Mr. Courtney (as he then was), "my wife is present, and she, too, has a sister." The meeting saw the member's point and the question was not pressed further.—Tit-Bits.

Woman as a Traveler.

When a woman who is traveling is assigned to her room in a hotel she looks up the hotel rules on the door and carefully reads them. When she comes to one as follows: "No washing of clothes permitted in this room," she gives a satisfied sigh. Then she unpacks her trunk, rings for hot water and within an hour has the mirror covered with handkerchiefs pasted there to dry, and has hose, underwear, waists, etc., hanging over the back of every chair. Then she gets out her diary and notes in it how much money she has saved. "There are said to be some very historic places in this town," she notes after detailing her wash, "but I will not have time to see them."—Atchison Globe.

Attacked in a Field Near Home, Presumably by a Negro.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 4.—Lucella Marshall, 28, was assaulted and left unconscious in a field as she was returning from a neighbor's house to her home on the Ewingville road, near this city. She is in a critical condition, with little hope for her recovery. The assault was committed near a negro settlement, which leads to the assumption that the assault was committed by a negro. Miss Marshall was found unconscious in a field by her father and a neighbor, who heard groans coming from the field. She was taken to a hospital, where physicians found that she had been hit on the head, presumably with an iron bar, which was found near where she was lying.

VICTIM OF WHITE SLAVERS

New York Banker Believes Dorothy Arnold Is Dead.

New York, Dec. 4.—In the course of a talk on "white slavery" at the Metropolitan temple James Lees Laidlaw, the banker, mentioned Dorothy Arnold and stated that he had known her from the time when she was a little girl and that he knew now that the Arnolds realized that "the worst" had happened to her.

Mr. Laidlaw explained that he had mentioned the case of Dorothy Arnold's disappearance as an illustration of what he believed to be a fact, that white slavery might come home to any family in New York, no matter what its financial or social position. He said that he had known the Arnolds for many years and was somewhat familiar with their efforts to find Miss Arnold. He said that he believed, and knew that the Arnolds believed, that Dorothy Arnold had been kidnapped, probably by white slavers, and he went on to say that he himself believed that when the kidnapers discovered that their victim was a member of a family of sufficient means to enforce a search for her, she was murdered to prevent discovery.

Treat Children Like Little Animals

By Mrs. MILTON HIGGINS of the National Mothers' Congress

CHILDREN SHOULD BE TREATED LIKE LITTLE ANIMALS—WHICH THEY ARE. THEY ARE OFTEN LESS WELL CARED FOR THAN DOGS. WE ARE MOST PARTICULAR ABOUT A DOG'S PEDIGREE. AFTER IT IS BORN WE SEE THAT IT HAS THE BEST OF FOOD AND OTHER MATERIAL SURROUNDINGS, BUT WE ALSO TEACH IT OBEDIENCE AND GOOD MANNERS, AND WE NEVER PERMIT IT TO THINK ITSELF OUR MASTER. THE SAME SYSTEM WILL WORK BEAUTIFULLY WITH A CHILD.

The child is the only human being who ought to LIVE IN A RUT. The first few months of its life will be spent in eating and sleeping. After that for several years it will alternate between eating, sleeping and playing. In the next stage its horizon will include eating, sleeping, playing and school, and that should last well into adolescence. We ought not to take children to theaters, moving pictures, elaborate parties. They will be BETTER OFF WITHOUT SUCH EXCITING DIVERSIONS and will enjoy them all the more when they are older.

Every traveler comments on the extreme nervousness of American children. I believe this is large due to our unwise indulgence, to the substitution of EXPENSIVE ARTIFICIAL PLEASURES for the simple ones that naturally belong to childhood. The little ones live in an atmosphere of precocious OVERSTIMULATION, and of course their nerves and tempers will suffer.

"Wayne B." Wrought Up Over Reports Wets Action

Liberal Forces Would Initiate Law to Govern Liquor Traffic.

Columbus, O., Dec. 4.—Wayne B. Wheeler, general superintendent for the Anti-Saloon league, was much exercised over reports that the liberal forces were circulating petitions to initiate a law governing the liquor traffic in accordance with the license amendment to the constitution. It had been expected that such a law would be left for the legislature to enact.

The law as embodied in the petitions which he says he saw is said to be almost identical with one drafted by the liberal representatives in Cincinnati a few days ago. Mr. Wheeler gave out an interview in which he declared that the state license commission, as proposed in the law, is contrary to the intent and plain provision of the license amendment, which contemplated county control, and is a scheme for the big brewers to get control of state politics.

Cox's Emissaries to Gather Data For Use in Framing Laws.

Columbus, O., Dec. 4.—Pursued by telegrams from Senator La Follette, directing the turning over to them of all the expert knowledge of the progressive state government of Wisconsin, Chairman William L. Finley of the Democratic state executive committee and General Oliver H. Hughes of the Ohio public service commission are on the way to Madison. They have gone as special emissaries of Governor-elect Cox to collect data for use in framing laws.

Uppermer, in his mind in dispatching his special commission to Wisconsin is the getting of information how best to proceed to make a physical valuation of railroads and other public utilities.

CROUPY COUGHS AND WHEEZY COLDS.

The quickest simplest way to rid the children of dangerous croupy coughs and wheezy stuffy colds is to give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Gentleman Burglar Works In Capital Districts

Washington, Dec. 4.—Washington police are seeking a well-dressed, soft-spoken young burglar who, within the last two nights, has robbed a score of homes. He first appeared Sunday night in half a dozen different sections of the city, each time politely warning terrified householders that he would be obliged to kill them if they made an outcry. He secured about $100 in plunder.

NEW WRINKLE IN CHOOSING PRESIDENTS IS STARTED

Washington, Dec. 4.—Senator Works of California introduced a bill for the election of presidents by popular vote without the action of the electoral college. The bill provides that after election the popular vote of each state shall be recorded and sent to the senate. The candidate receiving the greatest number of votes throughout the nation regardless of states will become president. It was referred to the judiciary committee.

Washington, Dec. 4.—President Taft authorized Postmaster General Hitchcock to deny the recent reports from Gainesville, Ga., that he intends to remove Mrs. Helen Longstreet, a widow of the Confederate general, as postmaster of that town, on account of her alleged activity in behalf of the Bull Moose party.

Awful Orgie When Negro Pugilist Weds Cameron Girl

Marks End of the Fight of Girl's Mother and Women's Clubs.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, brought to a climax the series of exciting events that have crowded his life in the last few months by marrying Lucille Cameron, an attractive white girl, whose home is in Minneapolis, and for the love of whom a large part of the negro's troubles with the federal and city authorities is responsible.

It was the discovery that the pugilist had transferred his affections to this 19-year-old girl that caused his first wife, Etta Duryea, white, to take her own life on the second floor of the "Cafe de Champion" several weeks ago.

The ceremony took place at the home that the pugilist gave his mother on Wabash avenue, in the presence of two score friends, white and black, of the prizefighter. It was performed by Rev. H. A. Robinson, negro pastor of the African M. E. church.

This marks the end of the bitter fight made by the mother of the girl, Mrs. Ethel Cameron Falconet, and several women's clubs in Chicago.

year, so that a 10 years' sentence amounts to four years and six months.

Governor Shaffroth explained the Colorado system of working convicts on the highways without guards, putting each man upon his honor not to escape. The loss has averaged one convict a year.

Governor Baldwin of Connecticut spoke in favor of separation of children from the hardened classes, advocated the use of the whipping post and capital punishment.

Governor John A. Dix of New York favored placing the worst offenders in workhouses for life, and Governor A. O. Eberhart of Minnesota spoke in opposition to capital punishment and in favor of the workhouse compensation plan, the earnings of convicts to be paid to those dependent on them, thus aiding in preventing crime.

The 39 governors and their wives were guests of the city at a reception.

Los Angeles Turns Down Commission Form of Code

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 4.—Los Angeles voters defeated the proposed new city charter establishing a complete commission form of government, with seven commissioners. The vote was light, but the rejection of the proposed charter was decisive. It was beaten by a vote of at least two to one and final returns may show three to one against it. The liquor interests won a victory also, for the proposed ordinance prohibiting free lunches in saloons—the only other question voted upon—was defeated.

THE BUSY WOMAN'S DAY.

It begins early, ends late, and is full of work. She often has kidney trouble without knowing it. Her back aches, and she is tired and worn out. Sleeps poorly, is nervous, no appetite. Her bladder gives her trouble too. Foley Kidney Pills will cure all that and make her strong and well.

Mrs. Lena Beyer, 12 Frederick St., Auburn, N. Y., says: "Three boxes of Foley Kidney Pills were all that were needed to make me strong and well." They are the best medicine made for kidney and bladder disorders. Try them. Blackmer & Tanquary.

The Cecilian Recital A Brilliant Success

The Cecilians added another jewel to the already bright crown of their artistic recitals Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. S. Craig.

The spacious connecting rooms and wide center halls were filled with a very complimentary feminine audience, which sat breathlessly appreciative through one of the most perfect programs ever presented by this club of musicians.

Mrs. Fannie P. Ballard opened the program with two brilliant Chaminade numbers, "La Livry—Air de Ballet". Mrs. Ballard's interpretations are those of the born artist, revealing the inmost spirit of the composer and yet putting into them a distinctive personality that is fascinating.

The innate beauty of her numbers was enhanced by their perfect rendition.

Washington's well known violinist, Mr. James Kneisley, favored the club and their guests with a very beautiful solo, "Meditation from Thais", Massenet, Miss Minnie M. Light accompanist. Mr. Kneisley's solos are always enjoyed beyond the ordinary, his pure tones and musically feeling inspirational.

The remainder of the program was devoted to a Song Cycle for four voices, "Hawthorne and Lavender", Fannie Snow Knowlton.

Mrs. Nina M. Craig read the prologue, which enabled the guests to understand the ten songs which, as is the mission of the cycle, elaborated the emotion to its close.

The cycle portrays the progress of the year from bright spring days when the Hawthorne blooms. In the changing melodies of each subsequent song life passes from spring to summer and youth with its glad elixir, challenges the world, only to find that despite its disregard of warning all days are not bright and the heart longs for peace and rest. The music moves on to its climax in the sunset of life, when memories come bringing rose color and the fragrance of lavender. The last song calls for the preservation of youth for it is to the youthful, loving heart that God walks nearest.

The Cycle was sung by Miss Edith Gardner, Mrs. Minnie Wilson Shoop, Mrs. Mary Goldsberry Burgett and Mrs. Ida H. Pine and the amazing beauty of its composition, brought out marvelously by the singers, hushed the audience to enthralled silence.

The harmonies are wonderful, and fairly surcharged with meaning. The voices took up the strains, now in solo, now in duet, trio or quartet, in perfect accord. Two of the songs, "Deep in My Gathering Garden" and "After the Grim Daylight", lingered especially in memory.

Miss Gardner sang the solo, "This Is the Moon of Roses" with great brilliancy, her tones rising clear and full on the high notes. Mrs. Shoop's solo, "The Downs" was exquisite and as its sweet tones died to an echo the quartet took up "This World of Gladness", which closed the cycle in a rapturous burst of melody.

The audience insisted on the repeating of the last song.

Mrs. Nina L. Murray played the accompaniment, an exceedingly difficult one, and her sympathetic rendering of it elicited much complimentary comment. The accompaniment in triplets to the "Song of Roses" was especially artistic.

The quintet of artists have devoted months of effort to the difficult music of the Cycle and the Cecilians and the audience expressed the fullest appreciation of what it meant to give a recital of this character.

END LIVER TROUBLE WITHOUT CALOMEL.

Untrustworthy Drug Thought to Loosen the Teeth, Now Made Absolutely Unnecessary.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the mildest but surest laxative known, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. Dr. Edwards has been calomel's uncompromising foe. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-oil-colored tablets, a rare combination of vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil. These pleasant, harmless little tablets do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel at all, but to let Olive Tablets take their place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy". Note how they "clear" the clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits.

At 10c and 25c a box. "Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

A Course in Diving.

The free instruction given by the United States navy at its seamen gunners' school includes a course in diving. Many of the younger blue-jackets become very proficient in this work. Besides his regular pay the member of a ship's crew, if a diver, receives an extra compensation of $1.20 per hour for the actual time he is employed under water.

BREAD ON THE WATERS.

Recompense, Just Like in the Stories and Plays.

A Cleveland paper tells of a tramp who came to the back door of a residence and begged for shoes. The mistress of the house gave him a good pair and said to him: "There, put these on, and if you want to show your gratitude, just happen around here some morning after a snowstorm and clean off our sidewalk."

Some time after the lady was awakened early one morning by some one scraping the sidewalk in front of the house. Looking out, she found that there had been quite a heavy fall of snow, and there she beheld the tramp to whom she had given the shoes, clearing away the snow from the sidewalk with an old broken shovel. When he caught sight of his benefactress at the window he raised his tattered hat to her, and his self-imposed task finished, went away without saying a word or even asking for anything to eat. Three times the same thing happened during the winter, but the man never asked for compensation or food.

A New York woman once invited a ragged, dirty beggar into her house, and after he had had a comfortable meal and some clean clothing she sent him away with words of encouragement, telling him that he was made for something better than tramping; that it was a shame for a man of his apparent intelligence and good health to be getting a living in such a disgraceful way.

This lady became embarrassed financially and was in sore need of money. She asked a friend where she could borrow $500, but he could not accommodate her, nor did he know of any one who could not. Next day, to her great astonishment, a man, total stranger, as she thought, called at her house and told her that he had heard she was pressed for money, and that he had come to lend her the amount she needed. With growing surprise she asked how it was that a complete stranger, whom she had never seen, was willing to trust her. The man then explained that he was the tramp whom, a year before, she had taken to her home and treated like a brother; that her kindness on that occasion had been the turning point in his career, had made a man of him again; that he had prospered beyond his deserts, and that ever since he had gotten on his feet he had been wishing for an opportunity to show his appreciation of what she had done for him.

Mr. Rockefeller is loyal to the Cleveland Sunday school he attended when a little boy. It was there he got his start, although they did not teach the oil business in that particular school.

SECRET CHRISTIANS OF TURKEY

Religious Services in Hidden Churches and by Night.

When Islam swept Asia Minor whole Christian neighborhoods were forced to accept the religion of Mohammed that they might escape the sword. Most of these converts accepted only the outward shell of Islam, so that there are to-day whole tribes outwardly Mohammedan but in reality more Christian or heathen. A number of tribes among the Kurds, for instance, are the descendants of Armenians thus nominally converted to Islam centuries ago.

Since the new Constitution of Turkey professes to grant religious liberty many of these people are attempting to shake off the hated yoke of Islam and the Young Turk Government finds itself face to face with the question what attitude it should show toward these attempts. At present the Stavriots, as they are called, are making great efforts to obtain their right.

The Stavriots who live in the neighborhood of the cloisters of Wasilu and Peristera and within the diocese of Trapezunt, Erzerum, Neocaesarea (Niksar) and Chaldia number about 50,000. The Turkish Government considered them Mohammedan, but they adhered secretly to the ceremonies of their former religion. They elected their own Mohammedan teachers, but they had also their own priests, who performed marriage, baptism, and other religious ceremonies in a hidden church secretly and by night.

After the revolution they telegraphed the Young Turks and demanded public recognition as Christians. This recognition has not yet been granted in spite of the fact that the new Turkish Government has promised complete religious liberty.—Missionary Review of the World.

Great Gamblers.

What men the gamblers of the great age were! There was Col. Melish, that marvellous all-round sportsman and fine officer, who once staked and lost £40,000 on a throw of the dice, and in a single evening won £197,000 ($985,000); there was Fox, who was a ruined man at twenty-five, although his father had paid £140,000 for him out of his own property; there was Lord Hastings, born out of his due time in the nineteenth century, who was not only ruined but died at twenty-six, and was understood to have lost £140,000 ($700,000) on a single horse-race—a blow he took with complete coolness.

From the curious betting-books at Brooks's and White's some quaint extracts are given. "Lord Montfort wagers Sir John Brand one hundred guineas that Mr. Nash outlives Mr. Cibber," both those personages being at the time (1754) very old men; yet below the entry in White's book appears the note, "Both Lord M. and Sir John put an end to their lives before the bet was decided." From Brooks's book is quoted the wager of five hundred guineas "that none of the Cabinet will be beheaded within three years."

Bloodiest Battle.

There have been so many bloody battles it is perhaps impossible to say with absolute certainty which of them all was the "bloodiest," but the balance of the evidence seems to be in favor of the battle of Chalons, France, fought A. D. 451, between the Huns, under Attila, and the Romans, Goths and Franks, under the command of Aetius, the most renowned captain of his day. At the head of his half million of savages Attila was having everything his own way, and it looked as if Aryan civilization was destined to fall before the Tartar despotism, when suddenly, like the bolt out of the blue, Aetius fell upon the barbaric hordes and Europe was saved. It is estimated that 400,000 of the barbarians were left dead on the field.

Mother's Task.

When mother gets breakfast she must remember that father likes his breakfast food without cream; John wants both cream and sugar; Susie doesn't like breakfast food at all and must have a substitute; Mary has to have grapefruit, and the rest of the family want oranges or apples. No two agree on anything, but she must remember what each one wants or the family doubt her devotion. What is it, do you suppose, that keeps the mother of a large family from going crazy?

The Test.

A really ingenious waiter is a rare being. A reporter of the New York Sun says that he found one not long ago, a genial Irishman, frankly inclined to converse. The guest sat down and frowned over the bill of fare in great perplexity.

"What's good to-day?" he inquired of the waiter.

"Clams, sir," answered the other, promptly, and then, leaning over the table, he added, confidentially "they're very good indeed, sir. The waiters are eating 'em themselves."

Justification.

The old ducky had driven his fare to the hotel and was now demanding a dollar for his service.

"What!" protested the passenger, "a dollar for that distance? Why, it isn't half a mile as the crow flies."

"Dat's true, boss," returned Sambo, with an appealing smile, "but ye see, sub, dat old crow he ain't got free wifes an' ten chilluns to support, not to mention de keep foh de boss."—Harper's Weekly.

TOOL HAVING MANY USES.

Useful as Nail-Puller, Hatchet, Bolt-Opener and Foot-Rule. Inventors have had little or no success designing new tools for carpenter.

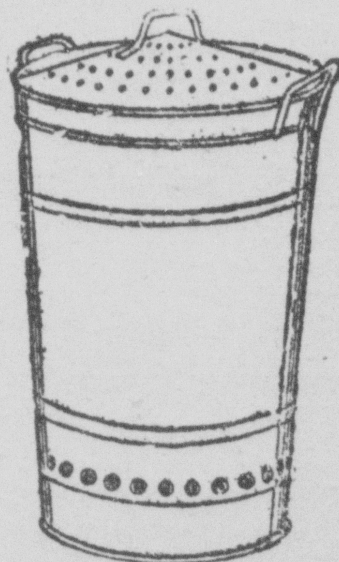

Tool Useful for All Purposes.

Tool useful for all purposes, so they naturally employ their talents in an effort to combine in one tool as many of those more generally used as they can. One of the most complicated of these implements is shown here, the invention of a Kansas man. Its uses are many, among which might be mentioned its employment as a nail-puller, bottle-opener, screwdriver, pipe wrench, can opener, gas pliers, foot-rule, hatchet, etc. Instead of lugging a kit of tools with him each day, the carpenter need carry but one or two such combinations and he will have an implement that will be found useful for almost any purpose required.—Washington Star.

Rubbish Burner.

There seems to be some urgent demand for a means of consuming the accumulation of paper boxes and similar material which gather about an ordinary household. The bonfire is effective, but it is always attended with a considerable element of danger. Wire baskets which have been Invented for the purpose reduce this danger very much, but it is said for the newest device for this purpose, which is made of sheet metal, and entirely inclosed, that sparks and flames cannot escape and consequently no damage can be done from its use.—Boston Post.

One Gleam of Joy.

Johnny had two presents at the same time—one a diary, which he kept very carefully, and the other a pea-shooting pop-gun, which he fired indiscriminately on all occasions.

One day his mother found the following terse record in his diary: "Mondy cold and sloppy. Toosdy cold and sloppy. Wensdy cold and sloppy shot Granma."

TALKING LIGHTHOUSES.

A Swedish Invention to Give Mariners Warning.

Wonderful possibilities are claimed for a Swedish invention called the photographone, by means of which it is said that sound waves can be registered on a sensitized plate.

The negative is developed in the ordinary way and the sound curves transferred to ebony plates, from which the sound is reproduced as by the gramophone.

The photographone records can be reproduced an infinitum, and if the original music or song should not be strong enough to fill a large concert hall, the sound can be increased as desired. On account of the immense volume of its sound the inventor prophesies that the photographone will replace fog sirens in lighthouses. Instead of the inarticulate howl which the sirens send out in the night the photographone foghorn will call out the name of the lighthouse for miles over the ocean.—London Daily Graphic.

Chimney Sweep Brutality.

This is almost too shocking for print. Jim Seaward, just elected an English Alderman, says he was "Tom," the little chimney sweep of Kingsley's "Water Babies." Here is part of Seaward's story: "When I was only 6 years old I went up my first chimney. Left an orphan I fell into the hands of a chimney sweep, and a cruel master was he. He would shove me up the chimney like a helpless little monkey, set straw afire under me, and stick pins into the soles of my bare feet to make me climb up the chimney. He would say, 'Climb, damn you, climb.' And when I came down my knees and elbows would be covered with blood and soot, and here are still blue scars. I was soaked in strong salt and water to make my flesh hard and tough, and sometimes I was kept up a bad chimney for hours at a stretch."

Bleeding Fish to Keep Them.

The Norway fisher cuts and bleeds fish the moment they are caught. He cuts the throat or bleeds them from the tail. Fish so finished keep far better. Fish are best just before spawning time; thereafter they become poor, then watery and unfit. Some folk are grieved by herring and mackerel. No matter how fresh the fish the people vomit, purge and break out in bold hives. It is not uncommon to find dead oysters mixed up in the heap. These dead ones are liable to poison the live ones.

Another Suit For Divorce

Another suit for divorce was filed in the Probate Court Tuesday when Ella M. Graves brought action against Evert Graves, asking for divorce and restoration to her maiden name of Ella M. Parkison.

They were married October 29, 1907, and while living near Jamestown she went to visit her parents in Greenfield, and during her absence the defendant is charged with having moved the household goods to Blanchester, and has since that time refused to live with her.

Progress.

The head of a New York firm having important interests in Italy decided some time ago, in view of the death of an old and reliable clerk, who, of all in the establishment, was the only one to have a good knowledge of the Italian tongue, that his own son, also a member of the concern, ought to take up the study of that language. Recently a friend met the young man. "I understand," said he, "that you're actually studying Italian." "Why, yes," said the other. "I've been at it for several months under a teacher just from the other side." "What progress?" "Good," was the answer. "He's beginning to speak English remarkably well."—The Argonaut.

Protecting the Birds.

Nowhere are birds better protected than in Germany. It is not only a subject of law there, but of education also, for children are taught in the schools the usefulness of birds in protecting trees, plants, crops and gardens. Bird-houses, and even bird-refectories, are seen in every park. On the other hand, the enemies of useful birds, such as kites, buzzards, hawks, magpies, kestrels and jays, are remorselessly killed under the encouragement of local governments, which offer rewards for their destruction. One consequence is that the harvest-fields and gardens of Germany suffer relatively little damage from noxious insects.

Walnuts for Fighting Bulls.

The United States Consul-General at the city of Mexico reports the arrival at Mexican ports of several Spanish ships, bringing in loads of English walnuts. The nuts are being distributed among ranches near Mexico city for use exclusively in feeding fighting bulls. The walnuts are supposed to put the animals on edge for ring encounters.—Washington Post.

Birds That Can Talk.

Professor Scott of Princeton says that wild birds sometimes introduce variations into their songs and, again more rarely, imitate not only the songs of other birds, but the barking of dogs, mechanical sounds like the creaking of wheels, the filing of a saw and even human speech. A writer in Bird Lore gives this well authenticated incident:

One morning while I was standing on my back steps I heard a cheerful voice say:

"You are a pretty bird. Where are you?"

I wondered how any parrot could talk loudly enough to be heard at that distance, for the houses on the street behind us are not near. Presently the voice came again, clear, musical and strong:

"You are a pretty bird. Where are you?"

For several days I endured the suspense of waiting for time to investigate. Then I chased him up. There he was in the top of a walnut tree and his gorgeous attire told me immediately he was a rose breasted grosbeak.

At the end of a week he was saying, "Pretty, pretty bird. Where are you?" He and his mate stayed near us all last summer, and this spring they came again. He is making the same remark as plainly as ever a bird can speak.

Still on Earth.

A Missouri clergyman had in his pastoral flock a member who was reluctant about meeting the contribution basket. The pastor had thrown out many broad hints, but all to no avail.

One day the member fell ill and was taken to the Ensworth Hospital. When the clergyman arrived the man was delirious. While the pastor was sitting beside his bed a wild yell of "Fire! Fire!" came from across the street.

The sick man drew himself up on his elbows. "Where—where am I?" he asked excitedly.

"Calm yourself, brother," soothed the pastor, with just the faintest twinkle in his eye. "You are still at the Ensworth Hospital."

BARGAIN MONTHS

DECEMBER AND JANUARY,

During which time this unequalled offer will remain in effect. This extremely low price has been made for the Bargain Months simply to allow the hundreds of rural readers to get better acquainted with the Daily Herald—to try it for a year at small cost—and to have plenty of time to make up their minds as to the many good qualities of the paper.

The regular price of The Herald by mail is $3.00 and it is the cheapest, local paper in Fayette county at that but at $2.25 for a year we are offering mail subscriptions the biggest kind of a bargain.

In addition to furnishing the Herald one year for $2.25, if subscription is paid during December and January, we will also give a copy of Rev. Irl R. Hicks' world famous 1913 Almanacs, regular price 30 cents, and one of the most interesting and valuable publications to be had. No one who has never used the Hicks Almanac can fully appreciate this offer.

The Herald Bargain Months offer is open to all mail subscribers until the clock strikes 12 on the night of January 31, 1913. (We are not allowed to send the Herald by mail in Washington except under a 1c stamp.) After that hour the price of the Herald and Hicks' Almanac goes back to the regular mail rate of $3.30 per year, and all those who delay sending in their subscriptions risk disappointment.

The Herald is an old established newspaper, rejuvenated and enlarged. Never before was it possible for mail subscribers to secure it for less than $3.00 per year. Get busy now while you can get a year's subscription and Hicks' Almanac for $2.25.
